Governor's Action in Senatorial Vacancy Causes a Stir.

This gives the city committee ample time to declare and hold a primary, which is popularly demanded. The burden now rests on the committee which may put up its own nominee if it chooses and make no provisions for a primary.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The most important step thus far toward the operation of the Panama Canal took place yesterday when the sea going tug boat Gatun, drawing 12 1-2 feet of water, was successfully passed through the Gatun locks.

A dispatch to a London news agency from Shanghai, says the Japanese minister has presented China with an ultimatum which gives China three days to comply with Japan's demands for satisfaction for the recent attacks on Japanese in Nanking. The correspondent says it is thought China will find it impossible to concede with Japan's demands. The nature of the action contemplated by Japan in case her demands are not fulfilled has not been disclosed.

The admission of water for the first time into the locks of the canal was begun yesterday in the upper chamber of the Gatun locks. It is hoped that all the chambers on one side of the locks will be filled today, in which event one of the dredges will probably be passed through into Gatun Lake. The filling of the locks at this time is largely in the nature of a test of the lock gates and operating machinery.

Two pet bulldogs went to the rescue of Miss Mary Louise Smith, the young daughter of Sidney F. Smith, of 2238 Cathedral Avenue, northwest, Washington, early last night, when she was in the grasp of a man who had stolen into the residence, and whom Miss Smith had surprised in the hallway. The dogs, responding to the girl's scream of terror, sprang furiously upon the man, and after biting him several times, drove him away.

A dispatch from Trewarthenic, Cornwal, Eng., says the sting of a wasp killed Lady Molesworth, formerly Miss Jane G. Frost, second daughter of Brigadier General D. M. Frost, U. S. A., of St. Louis. She was married in 1985 to the late Sir Louis William Molesworth, who died in 1912. The wasp stung Lady Molesworth on the jugular vein, and she passed away within twenty minutes.

POSTMASTERS REBUKE ALLEN

Resolution Censuring Democratic Administration Rejected.

ACTION IS DECIDED.

Chorus of Protests When Resolution is Offered Hitting at Burleson of P. O. Department.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 27.—The joint convention of the Postmasters Associations of Virginia and North Carolina, composed entirely of postal appointees holding over from the Republican administration, yesterday rejected by an overwhelming vote a resolution containing what members regarded as a veiled criticism of the department at Washington.

The resolution was offered by S. Brown Allen, Republican postmaster at Staunton, and after reciting the fact that every previous convention of either the Virginia or Carolina association had been attended by some Washington official it referred to the failure of the department to send a representative to the present gathering.

Mr. Allen is president of the Virginia Association. Instantly there arose a chorus of protests, with the declaration that while not expressing censure in so many words, the resolution nevertheless had been offered in a spirit of criticism, and conveyed no other meaning. Mr. Allen did not deny the inference, but on the contrary, in giving emphasis to his belief that the convention had been badly treated by the Democratic officials at Washington exclaimed during a hubub of voices: "If this be treason, make the most of it."

Put to a vote by Major W. R. Rollins, postmaster at Asheville, N. C., head of the Tar Heel postmasters, who was presiding, the resolution was rejected by a tremendous majority.

Mr. Allen had presented his proposal as an amendment to a resolution offered by Willis G. Briggs, postmaster at Raleigh, secretary of the Carolina association, sending the conventions greetings to Postmaster General Burleson, and pledging the cordial sympathy and co-operation of the 175 or more postmasters present.

Having disposed of Mr. Allen's amendment, the resolution from the Raleigh postmaster was adopted and it's contents transmitted to Washington in a telegram.

BOYS BOARD WRONG TRAIN.

Manassas Lads Leave Alexandria by Hobo Methods.

Two of our well known youngsters boarded a Southern train one night last week and went to Alexandria says the Manassas Democrat. In that place they were advised by a man not to buy a ticket but to jump on the train and ride home free. They boarded a train and when about a mile from Alexandria they discovered to their dismay that they were riding on the R. F. & P., instead of the train which was to bring them home. They kept their places until they arrived in Fredericksburg. Upon reaching this city, they were found by Officer Tansill and Mayor Rowe, who came to their assistance when it was found they did not have money enough to return to Manassus. The Fredericksburg officials helped the lads and they returned here Friday.

Williamson, W. Va., Sept. 27.—Joseph Rhoades, 19 years old, son of State Representative S. U. G. Rhoades, was found dead Thursday in his room in his home. He had apparently shot himself in the head some time within the night. None of the family can give any apparent reason for the suicide.

The boy's father was recently sentenced to the penitentiary, having been convicted of bribery in connection with the election of a United States Senator last winter.

Governor Hatfield has been asked permission for the father to return home to attend the funeral of the son.

SULZER TRIAL GETS EXCITING

Defense Says it Can Show Money Was Not Used in Campaign.

FORTY NEW WITNESSES

Both Sides in Impeachment Proceedings Said to be Ready to Spring Developments.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Conferences of the attorneys for both sides in the Sulzer impeachment trial were the order of the day. And in each camp the suggestion of impending sensational developments was held out.

The prosecution declared that only the edges of the case against the elected governor had been scratched. It says that during the coming week forty new witnesses will tell just what money Governor Sulzer had collected and how it was acknowledged. They say they will prove that more than $100,000 was wrongfully used by Sulzer for his stock market transactions.

Sulzer's attorneys insist that when the time arrives they will have a perfect defense. They believe that through the Governor himself, Mrs. Sulzer, Louis A. Sarecky, and several witnesses whose identity is successfully concealed they will be able to show to the satisfaction of at least one-third of the court that the collected money was the gift of friends and that there was no strings attached to it.

It will be contended that the cash was to be used at Sulzer's will. And the Sulzer lawyers insist that they believe enough members of the court will agree with them to prevent impeachment.

DISAPPOINTED SUITOR.

Writes Clerk of Courts Relative to Marriage License Issued Fiance.

Nevell S. Greenaway, clerk of courts, has received an interesting letter from a gentleman outside of the state. The writer of the letter seeks information relative to a marriage license which was issued several days ago to a young man and woman who were afterwards married in this city. At the ned the writer states.

"My reason for asking questions stated above is as follows: I am engaged to the girl so I want to know if she has been married and what has occurred. Please let me know so I can make other arrangements."

Judge Barley requested Clerk Greenaway to give the disappointed suitor the full facts in the case with the hope that he would be able to make "other arrangements."

They left here at 6:55 on the small ferry boat, the Frank M. Phillips, and when opposite the magazine the engines became disabled and the boat drifted into shallow water on the Maryland side of the river. Captain Ramsay rowed out to the channel and hailed the government tug, Winship, which brought the men back to Alexandria. They reached here at 10 o'clock.

ALLEGED SWINDLERS.

Two Men Arrested in Pittsburgh Held as "Flimflammers."

Alfred Miller, alias Alfred Le Vine, and Edward Johnson, the two alleged confidence men held in Pittsburgh for the Washington police, have been identified by Thaddeus R. The Police Department had photographs of the two men sent to Campbell and he identified them. Miller and Johnson will be given a hearing in Pittsburgh on October 6 before the United States Commissioner there.

The arrest of the two men followed quickly upon the apprehension in Washington of Edwin Daubney, John M. Geehan, and Henry Wood, three alleged "flimflam" men, who were arrested on the Monument lot by central office detectives.

FAVOR CHANGES IN CURRENCY BILL

Bankers' Association Met Today in Extraordinary Session.

ACTION AT OLD POINT.

Resolutions Adopted by State Convention in June Held to be Endorsement of Principles.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 27.—In response to a call issued early in the month by President Joseph M. Hurt, of the Virginia Bankers' Association, the bankers of the State will assemble in extraordinary convention at today in the auditorium of the Richmond Hotel in this city to take action on the pending currency reform bill. The meeting will be of an emergency character, called to meet recent developments in the money reform movement which the Old Point convention in June did not forsee.

President Hurt of Blackstone, and Walker Scott, of Farmville, secretary of the Virginia Bankers' Association, arrived last night and registered at convention haedquarters. Both of the officers ackowledge that today's meeting will bring some important developments.

The executive council of the association, which met at the Jefferson Hotel on September 6, and fixed the date for today's conference, adopted a resolution endorsing the Owen-Glass bill that were recommended by the canvention of bankers held in Chicago August 28. The [illegible] at large will today be given an opportunity to ratify or annul the council's act.

The opinion was general last night that the conference will by an overwhelming vote endorse the action of the executive council. The members, it was admitted, will have little hesitancy in thus annulling the Old Point resolution, which, it is held, was rather an endorsement of the principles of an elastic currency than of a scheme of money reform.

In taking this action the bankers of Virginia will follow in the footsteps of the national conference in Chicago last month. Much of the same spirit of hostility to several of the provisions of the Owen-Glass bill was evidenced here last week at the convention of the American Institute of Banking, whic hadopted a resolutions disclaiming any responsibility for the warm defense of the measure that was made by Secretary of State Bryan.

The amendments adopted at the Chicago conference and which the Virginia Bankers will be asked today to endorse, aim to give the governing voice in the proposed reserved board of control to the bankers of the country instead of to the government, as is provided in the bill. They demand the establishment of one central Federal reserve bank instead of the twelve designated by the Owen-Glass bill, and provide for important changes in the proposed reciprocal relations between the National and State and Federal reserve banks.

The police department has been notified that John Greenwich, colored, stole a pair of patent leather shoes from a fellow-workmen at Barcroft yesterday. The description of the alleged thief was given.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL

Trustees Will Meet to Discuss Ways and Means For Making Improvements

A meeting of the trustees of the Alexandria Hospital will be held on Monday night at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of discussing the growing needs of the Alexandria Hospital.

It has been known to most people in Alexandria for some time that this excellent institution is often taxed almost beyond its powers in meeting the wants not only of residents of this city but of many persons residing in this vicinity, and while the management are using their utmost endeavors to meet the obligations placed upon the institution, they realize that, sooner or later, they will reach their limit.

The object of the meeting of the trustees is, therefore, to endeavor to formulate plans which will meet any unusual demands which are liable to be made upon the hospital in future.

The Alexandria Hospital, as has often been said, is one of the most valuable of Alexandria's institutions. It had an humble beginning, but has grown in favor to such an extent that those having in charge the good work are often apprehensive, and while appreciating the noble response which are still being made by the good people of Alexandria, they realize the fact that the demands upon the hospital are heavily taxing it.

A new and modern hospital building is the dream of the management, but should this hope fail to crystalize, many alterations in the present building should be made and material additions to its equipment.

The citizens who are giving their time and labor to the hospital are working for the public good, and all will agree that they should be encouraged in their noble mission.

The meeting Monday night will be open, and the trustees will be glad to see a general turnout of citizens interested in the mission of the hospital.

One of the negroes had a rusty razor on his person. They were sentenced to serve ninety days in jail. They will be subject to service on the roads.

Annual Inspection Held Last Night Followed By Banquet at Young People's Building

The annual inspection and banquet of Old Dominion Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templars, last night, brought out the largest number of members of the organization that ever attended a similar occasion. More than 100 Knights were in line and the inspection was witnessed by a large number of spectators.

After assembling in their asylum in Masonic Temple the Knights marched through the streets to the armory, under command of Chester A. Gwinn, as commander, and William Lewis Allen, as adjutant.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

Total Registration Nears 1,000 Mark.

Charlottesville, Va., Sept. 27.—The eighty-ninth consecutive session at the University of Virginia began auspiciously Thursday with a notable convocation in Cabell Hall. Lectures started two weeks ago, but the exercises marked the official beginning of the newest and biggest session in the institution's history.

There are nearly as many students enrolled now as were registered at the close of last session. The records show that for many years approximately 100 students registered between the opening and the close of a session, so that if this precedent is maintained, the total registration for 1913-14 will be well toward the 1,000 mark.

The registrars' figures, as presented by Dean James Morris Page in his announcement are as follows:

The college, 382; the graduate school, 38; the department of engineering, 99; the department of medicine, 103; the department of law, 250. Total, 872.

This total includes some duplicates as in cases where students are taking courses in more than one department; but the total net registration is not much below the registrars' total.

Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, president of the University, who has been spending the past nine months in the Adirondacks, will come back to the university for a short stay about the 1st of November. He will then return to the Adirondacks to remain until January 1, when business connected with the university will again bring him back for a few weeks. The remainder of the year's furlough will be spent at Lake Saranac.

On his return in November Dr. Alderman will receive a royal welcome by the faculty and students.

TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Believing Himself Unjustly Accused, Slashes His Throat.

Richmond, Sept. 27.—Robert Dooley, 30 years old, whose home is in Fairmount, attempted suicide in his cell in jail Thursday by slashing his throat with a piece of steel sharpened to a razor edge, it became known today.

At the jail it was reported Dooley was resting comfortably and would recover. The reason assigned for his act was that he believed he had been unjustly accused of a crime.

Dooley was received at the jail Wednesday, having been remanded to await trial in police court on the charge of felonious assault.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

WOULD EXCLUDE BIBLE FROM MAILS

The Postoffice Department has received an unusual petition from a body of citizens. This petition urges that the Bible be excluded from the mails, on the grounds that it contains obscene and immoral matter.

The circulation of information relative to any efforts to exclude alleged objectionable books, pictures or publications from the mails usually results in a lot of free advertising and a consequent increase in the sale of the article in questinon. It is not known what effect this will have on the increased sale of the Bible.

There is probably no library in the world in which books cannot be found far more objectionable than the Bible.

Don Quixote, Asmodeus, Arabian Knights Entertainment, Boccacio's Decameron, Smollett's Works, Gil Blas, and most of the productions of the Elizabethan age, tend more to corrupt the minds of young and old than anything in the Scriptures. There are illustrated books in the Congressional library which if found in the possession of people in the State of Virginia would subject them to terms on the State roads.

Yet the Anthony Comstocks of this day urge no objection to the circulation of the volumes referred to above.

While no one will deny the fact that some bold statements are made in portions of the Scriptures, the fact that there is no commendation of the acts described forms a deep chasm between inspired books and those written to portray escapades and the doings of licentious men and women.

Many attempts have been made at different times in the world's history to eliminate the Bible, and this latest movement will be as the fly on the ox's horn.

NEGRO LYNCHED.

Negro Was Charged With Asaulting 11-Year-Old Girl.

Litchfield, Ky., Sept. 27.—A mob of citizens went to the county jail here about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, overpowered the jailor, took Joe Richardson, a negro, from his cell and hanged him to a tree in the public square.

Richardson was charged with assaulting Roe Goff, 11 years old, as she was on her way to school in the county near here, Tuesday morning.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 27.—Although Mrs. M. M. Ray, at Hinchcliff, Miss., could not positively identify Walter Brownlee, a mulatto, alleged to have assaulted her, he was taken from the town jail by a mob and hanged to a telegraph pole. The negro died protesting his innocence. Brownlee was said to have been implicated in a similar crime near Webb, Miss.

THE BRIDGE! TH' BRIGG?! A' TO THE BRIGG!!!

"Come thro' the heather,
Around him gather,
You're a' the welcomer early,
Around him cling
Wi all your kin, but Charlie?"
—Scotch Folksong.

Twenty years and more have passed in talking and figuring over a bridge, a new bridge, a better bridge, a memorial bridge, if you will, from Washington to Alexandria county above the Arlington estate. Some thing ought to be done. The population of the county has about doubled in that time. Something ought to be done quickly.

One citizen wants Capital Traction cars to run across, another wants something else. To the shades with the details! Get together on the main chance, the bridge; the engineers will take care of the details, when once the money is at hand.

Alexandria county wants this bridge. So does Alexandria city. What benefits one benefits the other. In fact the two are like husband and wife. The "old man" may get a little tipsy at times; but it is the good wife's part to keep him sober, not to run to the divorce court. Virginia wants the bridge; for the Alexandrias are her children. The Nation wants it; not merely for the sake of Arlington but for the sake of Virginia, her faithful daughter. What has not Virginia deserved of the Nation? Nearly a century and a half ago she raised the slogan of liberty; she gave the voice of her intellect; she gave the flashing sword of her power; she gave the life blood of her sons. May she not then ask this little thing of the mighty tide of wealth?

Last winter Congress took once more a faltering step toward the bridge; it appointed a commission with the President as chairman and $25,000 to make plans, but did not actually appropriate the money. The other day Representative Carlin took steps to get the $25,000 into the urgency deficiency bill now going through Congress. Some ways it is really his job. But the $25,000 was left out. Senators Martin and Swanson have rallied to his support and the matter is before the Senate committee. Let everybody help.

"Come thro' the heather;
Come all together,
Come Ronald, come Donald.
Around him gather,
And crown your rightfu' lawfu' king
For wha'll be king but Charlie.

Stop fooling! Let's have the bridge.

Senator Martin from the vantage ground of chairman of the committee will please insist!

Senator Swanson, having put forth his hand first, will please assist!!!

Representative Carlin will please persist!!!

The whole citizenship will please consist!!!! Stand solidly together as one man. Sink all differences and rivalries! Come Supervisors Duncan, Wibirt and Walker! Come Rucker and Thomas and Wilson: Mackey and Lyon and Moncure: Palmer and Johnson and Barbor; Ball and Crocker; Birrell and Ewing and Angelo; Mayor Fisher come. Come Torreyson and Zachery and Hodges and Clements and Douglas! Come Livingston and Thrift! Come Fellows and Church and Hawxhurst! Dr. Johnson and Admirals Rixey and Weaver; Rice and Doyle and Calvert; Collins and Potter! Come Donahoe and Wiley; Alex. Wedderburn, come! We can't name one in a thousand, but every mother's son of you come. Come Leesburg and Manassas and Warrenton. From Clarke to the Dismal Swamp from the Eastern shore to Big Stone Gap; all Virginia come! Everybody push; pull! Haul! Tug! Anyway! Everyway! All together once more, and the bridge is ours.

We want not merely $25,000; we want about $5,000,000 and we want it this coming session.—Commonwealth, Alexandria county.

GONE UP IN SMOKE

One-half of your coal—it did you no good. Hard lu that. But there is a way to it. Here's how:

That stove of yours has seen its best days. You need a new one. You know but you have let things drift along.

Meanwhile, you have been losing HALF of every hod of coal you have put

Of course, you knew it, but you did not think of it that way. You know that of every lump is gas. Fail to burn that gas and it is like throwing into the ditch of every dollar you spend in coal.

Rather extravagant? Yes?

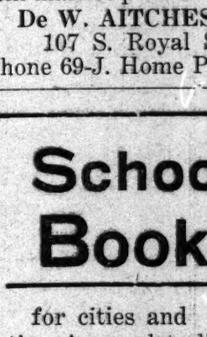
The ordinary stove made of a lot of separate castings leaks air. They leak the wrong place. Places you can not control.

RESULT—the best part of your coal—the 14,000 cubic feet of common illuminating gas that is in the average ton of $3.00 soft coal—goes up the flue unburned.

You have lost it. It has gone up in smoke.

Save that gas—mix it properly with air and you have the hottest kind of a blue flame. But there is only one way to do this—

Buy the only heater that is made tight—holds tight—stays tight



Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

It leaks no air.

This is the heater that mixes the gas and air and gives you the heat in the coal.

This is the heater that burns any kind of coal and makes a ton of $3.00 soft coal do the work of $8.00 hard coal in a high priced base burner.

This is the heater that is a joy and comfort to the housewife. It makes no dirt or smoke in the house.

This is the heater that saves labor—fix it in the morning and at night and FORGET IT THE REST OF THE TIME.

This is the heater that gives a steady, constant heat from soft coal or lignite.

This is the heater that will hold its fire untouched for a day and a half.

This is the heater we sell you under a guarantee that is as "good as old wheat at the mill." Burns soft coal, lignite, slack, hard coal or wood.

It is just the kind of a heater you want. Come in and see it.

$5,000 FOR BATH AND SHAVE.

Value of Mental Anguish Caused by Compulsory Cleanliness.

Washington, Sept. 27—The mental anguish produced by being stripped of clothing and given a bath with a hose, after which came a head shave and the loss of his mustache, is worth $5,000 to Joseph W. Croft, he alleges, in a suit which he has filed against Louis F. Zinkhan, superintendent of the jail here. Mr. Croft on declining to pay his wife alimony was turned over by the court to the district jailer, who sent him to the workhouse down the river at Occoquan. It was there that Mr. Croft suffered the indignities for which he seeks substantial financial balm.

MAGNIFICENT EXPOSITION

A magnificent Exposition of Virginia industrial and agricultural products and resources, including live stock, has been provided for this year on larger and more comprehensive lines than has ever been heretofore attempted. This policy of expansion and innovation has been carried out in every department at enormous cost, and by persistent effort on the part of the Association. Cash prizes have been increased, a new steel and concrete Viaduct Bridge has been erected over the Railroads near the grounds, at a cost of $30,000. A large addition has been made to the Grand Stand, increasing greatly its comfort and seating capacity, and necessitating the operation of two Vaudeville Stages in order to present an unusual array of Free Attractions, including educational features, novelties and amusements secured from almost every land and almost every race through prominent Agents in both America and Europe.

WOMAN GUILTY OF MURDER.

A Ten-Year Sentence For Killing Her Husband.

Fulton, Mo., Sept. 27.—Mrs. Susan Ross, who has been on trial here for the murder of her husband, J. H. Ross, was found guilty of murder in the second degree yesterday.

The jury fixed the penalty at 10 years' imprisonment. The case went to the jury yesterday.

Ross was murdered while he slept. The revolver with which he was shot was found hidden under a rug in the room. His son, Ernest, 17 years old, first was arrested, but later was released and a charge was preferred against his mother.

The son testified at the trial that he had struck his mother and the defense dwelt on the turmoil that had prevailed in the family and stated that the son had mistreated his mother without hindrance from his father. If Mrs. Ross had killed her husband, he argued, she was insane when she fired the shot.

STITCHES IN HEART.

A Stab Wound in Vital Organ Sewed Up by Surgeon.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—James Wilson, 19 years old, colored, is lying on a cot in St. Joseph's Hospital with four stitches in his heart, placed there by a surgeon in an operation which has been equalled few times in the history of surgery. That Wilson will probably live, and physicians at the hospital declared his chances of recovery are excellent, is due to the fact he was lucky enough to be stabbed in the heart while surgeons at the hospital were in the midst of a clinic conducted for the benefit of the visiting surgeons.

Wilson was stabbed in a quarrel with Isadore Della, 19 years old. Della, the police declare, picked up a long fish knife and plunged it into Wilson's breast.

FIXES ROBBERY ON ELLIS.

Louisville (Ky.) Victim Identifies Photograph of Richmond Man.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 27.—A photograph of Joseph Ellis, of Richmond, Va., sent here by his father, was yesterday positively identified by Maurice Raff, as the likeness of the young man who last week robbed him of a gold watch and a sum of money in a room at a local hotel.

The photograph also was identified by others who met young Ellis here.

Furthermore, it was positively stated that Ellis and Fred Brokaw are two individuals, although they greatly resemble each other, and photographs of Brokaw had been previously identified as Ellis.
